QUESTIONS PRESENTED

This case arises from a constitutional challenge to a patriotic activity regularly practiced in California classrooms and sanctioned under the California Education Code. The statute, section 52720, authorizes elementary school children to recite the Pledge of Allegiance to the United States in order to discharge “appropriate patriotic exercises,” CAL. EDUC. CODE § 52720 (West 1989), at the beginning of the school day. The Pledge of Allegiance, as it is performed in California and throughout schools across the United States, is an act of Congress describing the United States as “one nation under God.” 4 U.S.C. § 4 (1998). These petitions present the Court with an opportunity to reconcile divergent perspectives on this issue by circuit courts of appeal and afford clarity under the law as to the nature and extent the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment accommodates patriotic exercises performed in California and elsewhere. The petitions also raise an important question of national import because the Pledge of Allegiance, as enacted by Congress, is regularly recited by school children throughout the United States under state law similar to the California statute scrutinized in this case.

Amici will address the following questions:

1. Whether the inclusion of the phrase “under God” in the Pledge of Allegiance to the United States Flag violates the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment.

2. Whether a noncustodial parent, who lacks the legal authority to determine his child's education or religious upbringing, has Article III standing to challenge educational practices undertaken by the school in which the custodial parent has chosen to place the child.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 37, amici curiae Governor Dirk Kempthorne, et al., submit this brief in support of Petitioners United States of America and Elk Grove Unified School District, et al., having obtained the written consent of both petitioners and respondent. The letters of consent have been filed with the Clerk of this court.<sup>1</sup>

IDENTITY OF AMICI CURIAE

Amici curiae are Idaho's chief executive, the state's entire delegation to the United States Congress, and Idaho's State legislative leadership.

Amicus Dirk Kempthorne is the duly-elected Governor of the State of Idaho and is a former United States Senator. As Governor, he is required to "see that the laws are faithfully executed." IDAHO CONST. art. IV, § 5. Idaho has a statutory requirement that the state's schoolchildren learn the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States. Governor Kempthorne signed that legislation into law on April 17, 2000. See H.B. 655, 55th Leg. 2d Sess., 2000 Idaho Sess. Laws 1449 (codified as amended as IDAHO CODE § 33-1602 (Michie 2001)).

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 37.6, Amici affirm that no counsel for any party in this case authored this brief in whole or in part and that furthermore, no person or entity has made a monetary contribution specifically for the preparation or submission of this brief.

Amicus United States Senator Larry Craig is the senior member of Congress from the State of Idaho. Senator Craig has been a member of the United States Senate for twelve years and was recently elected to his third consecutive term in November 2002. Prior to becoming a United States Senator, Senator Craig was a member of the United States House of Representatives. He begins his daily legislative business by reciting the Pledge of Allegiance on the Senate floor as well as participating in a prayer led by the Chaplain of the United States Senate.

Amicus Mike Crapo also serves the people of Idaho as a United States Senator. Prior to being elected to the United States Senate, he was a three-term member of the United States House of Representatives. Senator Crapo was elected to Congress after having served as the President Pro Tempore of the Idaho State Senate, a body of the legislative branch of Idaho government that begins each legislative day with a prayer. As with his other colleagues, Senator Crapo begins his legislative day on the floor of the United States Senate with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Amicus United States Representative Mike Simpson is the former Speaker of the Idaho House of Representatives. He served fourteen years as a state legislator and was elected Speaker of the House for three sessions of the Idaho Legislature. As Speaker, he presided over the Idaho House of Representatives in a daily prayer prior to the start of each legislative day of business. In his present position, Congressman Simpson begins his legislative day on the floor of the United States House of Representatives by reciting the Pledge of Allegiance.

Amicus C.L. "Butch" Otter is also a member of the United States House of Representatives from the State of Idaho. Prior to being elected to Congress, Representative Otter was the Lieutenant Governor of Idaho and performed the duties of acting Governor on numerous occasions. As Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate for four four-year terms, he presided over a daily prayer in the Idaho State Senate. As a member of the House of Representatives, he also begins his daily legislative business with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Amicus Robert L. Geddes is the President Pro Tempore of the Idaho State Senate. During Idaho's 2000 legislative session, he voted for and supported House Bill 655 which enacted Idaho's citizenship legislation providing for citizenship education—including the Pledge of Allegiance—in Idaho's schools. President Pro Tempore Geddes also supported a change to Senate Rule 4 during the 2003 legislative session which added the Pledge of Allegiance to the second order of business in the Idaho State Senate.

Amicus Bruce Newcomb is the Speaker of the Idaho House of Representatives, a position he has held for three terms. As the Speaker of the Idaho House of Representatives, Idaho's largest legislative body, Speaker Newcomb presides over the daily prayer by the House Chaplain at the start of the legislative day of business. Speaker Newcomb also voted for and strongly supported House Bill 655, Idaho's citizenship education law, during the state's 2000 legislative session.

INTEREST OF AMICI CURIAE

Amici hail from the State of Idaho, a state which requires as a matter of its fundamental constitutional construct that no “preference be given by law to any religious denomination or mode of worship.” IDAHO CONST. art. I, § 4. As elected officials of state and federal government, the laws are entrusted to the Amici for their deliberate construction and lawful application.

The Pledge of Allegiance plays an integral part of the citizenship education for children in Idaho public schools. Amici are well familiar with the process by which federal laws are impressed upon on the states, and they understand that the words “under God” in the Pledge represent an important affirmation by Congress that the Framers of the Constitution never designed the United States to be a nation void of any acknowledgement of God in our public and free society.

Amici are vitally interested in maintaining the Pledge of Allegiance as an important part of the social and moral fabric of Idaho, a state which is immediately impacted by this case because it falls within the jurisdiction of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

This case, if it were to stand, will degrade an important observance of Idaho’s heritage and culture. This outcome is particularly worrisome because it comes more than two centuries after the birth of a Republic in which its patriarchs freely evoked God in the many writings and organic documents which became the blueprint for the new Nation. Amici can offer a unique perspective on why the decision below should be reviewed as well as why the issues in the case are of the highest importance to the State of Idaho and the United States of America.

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

The State of Idaho provides mandatory citizenship and patriotism education in its public schools. By operation of state law, Idaho affords the opportunity for its students to recite the Pledge of Allegiance, sing the National Anthem or “America the Beautiful” in a public school setting. IDAHO CODE § 33-1602(2) (Michie 2001) (as amended by H.B. 655, 55th Leg. 2d Sess., 2000 Idaho Sess. Laws 1449). The holding in this case has essentially eviscerated key components of Idaho's mandatory patriotism curriculum.

Amici support the petitions for writ of certiorari filed in this case. Additionally, Amici support all of the grounds offered supporting attention to this case by the Court, including the standing of the Respondent to bring this action in the first instance as well as the suggestion by the Petitioners for summary reversal as an appropriate disposition of this matter.

Amici specifically address three separate justifications for certiorari review. First, as clearly articulated by both Petitioners, the decision directly conflicts with a 1992 case from the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, Sherman v. Cmty. Consol. Sch. Dist. 21 of Wheeling Township, 980 F.2d 437 (7th Cir. 1992), cert. denied, 508 U.S. 950 (1993).

Second, state courts that have reviewed similar Establishment Clause challenges under the lens of the First Amendment have accommodated the acknowledgment of God in a public setting, under similar grounds as the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals did in Sherman.

Third, this case presents a federal law question of exceptional importance significantly impacting the States. In addition to Idaho, a considerable majority of the United States have a statutory expression encouraging (and in some instances, requiring) public school patriotism education in which the Pledge of Allegiance is an essential element. See generally, Appendix. Some states have enacted the complete language of the Pledge of Allegiance with the words “under God” directly into their statutory infrastructure.

Accordingly, because this case directly conflicts with an existing opinion of the United States Court of Appeals and also presents an extraordinarily important federal law question that should be settled by this Court, review on certiorari is warranted.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITIONS

I. INTRODUCTION: THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE AND ITS CRITICAL IMPORTANCE FOR CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION IN THE STATE OF IDAHO

Our Nation’s Founding Fathers declared independence from Great Britain by proclaiming to be ever mindful of man’s “equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them,” THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE (U.S. 1776) (emphasis added), and also professed that one of the self-evident truths is that such men “are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights,” id., para. 2 (emphasis added).

The Preamble to the Constitution of the State of Idaho declares that “We, the people of the state of Idaho, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, to secure its blessings and promote our common welfare do establish this Constitution.” IDAHO CONST. pmbl. (emphasis added). As with the Nation’s Founding Fathers, so too did the framers of the Idaho Constitution acknowledge that the process of constructing its essential governmental infrastructure required divine intercession in order to ensure its success.

The California statute reviewed in this case, CAL. EDUC. CODE § 52720 (West 1989), see App., infra, at 3-4, is a mirror image to an Idaho provision which requires patriotism education in all of the state's elementary and secondary schools. Title 33, section 1602 of the Idaho Code provides in part that:

- (2) Instruction in the proper use, display and history of and respect for the American flag and the national colors shall be given in all elementary and secondary schools. Such instruction shall include the pledge of allegiance to the flag, the words and music of the national anthem, and of "America."

- (4) Every public school shall offer the pledge of allegiance or the national anthem in grades one (1) through twelve (12) at the beginning of each school day.

IDAHO CODE § 33-1602(2), (4) (Michie 2001) (emphasis added). See App., at 8-9 (setting forth the complete statute).

However, mindful that the Idaho Constitution prohibits any marginalization of an individual's "right, privilege, or capacity on account of his religious opinions," IDAHO CONST. art. I, § 4, the statute further provides that "No pupil shall be compelled, against the pupil's objections or those of the pupil's parent or guardian, to recite the pledge of allegiance or to sing the national anthem." IDAHO CODE § 33-1602(5) (Michie 2001). See also W. Va. State Bd. of Educ. v. Barnett, 319 U.S. 624 (1943) (children may not be compelled to salute the flag and recite the Pledge of Allegiance as a prerequisite to public school attendance).

Thus, even with Idaho's strong public policy that her young people be well-grounded and learned in the Nation's founding principles, that same policy provides an equally strong and appropriate religious and philosophical accommodation to those who may object to having to recite the Pledge of Allegiance or sing the National Anthem.

The practical impact of Idaho's current citizenship curriculum in elementary and secondary schools is that (if they so choose), young people throughout the state begin each day with some acknowledgment of a divine nexus for the creation and protection of our Country. In addition to perhaps reciting "one nation, under God" in the Pledge of Allegiance, some Idaho school children may fulfill their patriotic curriculum requirement under title 33, section 1602 of the Idaho Code by singing the words and music of the National Anthem,<sup>2</sup> or "America the Beautiful."<sup>3</sup>

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust"
And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Francis Scott Key, Star Spangled Banner (Sept. 20, 1814) (emphasis added).

<sup>3</sup> The first chorus to "America" is sung, "America! America! God shed His grace on thee." The second chorus is sung, "America! America! God mend thine every flaw." The third chorus is: "America! America! May God thy gold refine." The fourth and final chorus is identical to the first. Katherine Lee Bates, America the Beautiful (1913) (emphasis added).

The consequence of the circuit court's holding in this case is that each of the options expressly afforded in Idaho's classrooms to teachers and students for education in the heritage of the United States has become effectively eviscerated.<sup>4</sup>

II. THIS CASE WARRANTS REVIEW ON CERTIORARI

Amici fully support the petitions for writ of certiorari filed with the Court in this case. Amici support all of the grounds offered supporting attention to this case by the Court, including the issue of standing of the Respondent to bring this action in the first instance as

<sup>4</sup> One irony of the Court's decision is that Idaho school children could now be forced to seek refuge in religious schools to recite the Pledge of Allegiance enacted by Congress and receive the State's citizenship curriculum under title 33, section 1602 of the Idaho Code.

However, Idaho school districts are also afforded the opportunity to set forth their particular policies regarding religious practices, as exemplified by the following pronouncement from the Boise City School District:

The District shall respect the right of each individual to follow his/her own beliefs, as long as the beliefs do not infringe upon the rights of others or disrupt the educational process. Information about various religions may be made available to students as appropriate to the students' grade level and course of study. Any discussion or study of religion or other beliefs shall be offered in a fair and objective manner, consistent with learning objectives and free from sectarian influence.

Independent School District of Boise City, Policies and Administrative Procedures Number 2190 (Rev. Aug. 2001).

well as the suggestion by the Petitioners for summary reversal as an appropriate disposition of this matter.

However, three separate bases for certiorari review are addressed below. First, because the circuit courts of appeals diverge on the precise issue of law presented by this case, the Court's supervisory power should be exercised in this instance and the holdings reconciled. Second, state courts that have reviewed similar Establishment Clause challenges—including one to the Pledge of Allegiance—have relied upon established federal case law and upheld reasonable invocation of God in public settings. Finally, this case presents a federal law question of exceptional importance significantly impacting the states which should be settled by this Court.

A. This Case Directly Conflicts With an Existing Opinion by Another Court of Appeals

As duly noted by Petitioners United States and Elk Grove School District, in an almost identical case decided a decade ago, the Seventh Circuit in Sherman v. Cmty. Consol. Sch. Dist. 21 of Wheeling Township, 980 F.2d 437 (7th Cir. 1992), cert. denied, 508 U.S. 950 (1993), held that the Establishment Clause accommodated a 1979 Illinois statute which required that the Pledge of Allegiance be led by teachers, provided that the students were free to not participate. Because this case is inapposite to Sherman, it is in conflict with the decision of another United States Court of Appeals on the same important matter and thus warrants certiorari review.

The need to reconcile the instant case with Sherman is even more critical given the late hour by which this particular issue was decided by the circuit court below. Since Congress amended the Pledge of Allegiance in 1954, several lower federal courts have entertained Establishment Clause challenges to that legislative act.<sup>5</sup> Notwithstanding previous treatment of this issue by the federal judiciary—including the Seventh Circuit in Sherman—the Ninth Circuit recently held that the First Amendment was violated even though Congress originally acted almost a half century ago.<sup>6</sup> Just as Miranda warnings have “become part of our national culture,” Dickerson v. United States, 530 U.S. 428, 443 (2000), this Court should not hesitate to settle the legitimacy of a congressional act which has perhaps become an even more important part of our national tradition after the events that occurred on September 11, 2001.

<sup>6</sup> In rejecting an Establishment Clause challenge to the Ohio state motto “With God All Things are Possible,” the Sixth Circuit recently noted that:

We should also be amazed if the Supreme Court were now to question the constitutionality of the Act of June 14, 1954 (68 Stat. 249), codified at [4 U.S.C. § 4]. That is the statute, enacted two years before enactment of Ohio’s motto statute, in which Congress, taking a leaf from the Gettysburg Address, amended the Pledge of Allegiance by inserting the phrase “under God” between “one Nation” and “indivisible.”

Am. Civil Liberties Union of Ohio v. Capitol Square Review and Advisory Bd., 243 F.3d 289, 301 n.10 (6th Cir. 2001) (en banc) (emphasis added).

The decision below by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals cannot be a correct result under the First Amendment because “[t]he people of the United States did not adopt the Bill of Rights in order to strip the public square of every last shred of public piety.” Chaudhuri v. Tennessee, 130 F.3d 232, 236 (6th Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 523 U.S. 1024 (1998). The Founders never intended that the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment would be offended, when over a century and a half later, Congress inserted the words “under God” into the Pledge of Allegiance. See Pub. L. No. 396, under 68 Stat 249 (1954).

B. State Courts Reviewing Similar Establishment Clause Challenges Have Accommodated the Acknowledgment of God in a Public Setting

A conflict in the federal circuit courts over whether the Pledge of Allegiance can be recited in schools will necessarily undermine well-settled state court jurisprudence which has developed in this and similar contexts.

Shortly after Congress amended the Pledge in 1954, a New York Supreme Court assessed its application in public schools in Lewis v. Allen, 159 N.Y.S.2d 807 (1957). An education regulation was amended after Congress acted to include the language of the Pledge verbatim into the regulation and was thus applied in public school patriotic exercises under the predecessor to section 802 of the New York Education Law. See App., infra, at 25-26.

The issue before the supreme court was whether the Commissioner of Education was under a duty to revoke and rescind the regulation under the Establishment Clause as well as New York State Constitution. The court noted in passing that “If I properly apprehend the intent, design and purposes of the First Amendment, it was conceived to prevent and prohibit the establishment of a State Religion; it was not intended to prevent or prohibit the growth and development of a Religious State.” Lewis, 159 N.Y.S.2d at 812 (emphasis in original).

Petitioner United States cites Lynch v. Donnelly, 456 U.S. 668 (1984) as authority for this Court’s assurance that the Pledge comports with the strictures of the Establishment Clause, see Petition of United States at 14. Likewise, state high courts have also relied on Lynch’s assurance. See, e.g., Maylon v. Pierce County, 935 P.2d 1272 (Wash. 1997) (counseling program secular in purpose and on its face but occasionally involving some consensual religious activity by unpaid volunteers did not violate the Establishment Clause); State of Colorado v. Freedom From Religion Found., Inc., 898 P.2d 1013 (Colo. 1995) (monument which displayed the Ten Commandments, donated to the state for a secular purpose but contains a message of both religious and secular value, displayed among other monuments and tributes on the grounds of the State Capitol did not violate Establishment Clause); King v. Vill. of Waunakee, 517 N.W.2d 671 (Wisc. 1994) (display of a nativity scene in a public park did not violate the Establishment Clause); and Conrad v. City and County of Denver, 724 P.2d 1309 (Colo. 1986) (nativity scene displayed annually on the steps of the Denver City and County Building during the Christmas season did not violate state version of the Establishment Clause).

Clarity in the federal Establishment Clause jurisprudence is crucial to state reviewing courts, especially noting the breadth and depth of exposure by the states due to the role the Pledge plays in their educational systems. See Appendix, infra. These petitions have poised this important federal question for appropriate guidance to the state courts.

C. This Case Presents a Federal Law Question of Exceptional Importance that Should Be Settled by this Court Because it Broadly and Significantly Impacts the Individual States

Of course, certiorari is “not a matter of right,” SUP. CT. R. 10. Such review is appropriate where the case “has decided an important question of federal law that has not been, but should be, settled by this Court.” SUP. CT. R. 10(c).

How the 1954 version of the Pledge of Allegiance has become eternally woven into the social fabric of Idaho has already been described. However, the Pledge of Allegiance has also been indelibly etched into the fabric of state patriotism education throughout the country. The majority of the states located within the Ninth Circuit, in addition to California and Idaho, have similar statutory requirements for public school patriotism education which includes recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance. See ALASKA STAT. § 14.03.130(a) (Michie 2000) (App., infra, at 1-2). ARIZ. REV. STAT. § 15-506 (West 2002) (App., infra, at 2). MONT. CODE ANN. § 20-7-133 (2001) (App., infra, at 20-21). NEV. REV. STAT. § 389.040 (2002) (App., infra, at 21). WASH. REV. CODE § 28A.230.140 (2000) (App., infra, at 39-40). Id.

Outside of the Ninth Circuit, the importance of a single federal appellate court deciding that the 1954 amendment to the Pledge is unconstitutional becomes more pronounced. Some states, as a testament to the durability of the language of the Pledge since 1954, and further relying on the authority of Congress to enact constitutional legislation accommodating of the Establishment Clause, have enshrined the full and complete language of the Pledge of Allegiance into their own state law. See ALASKA STAT. § 14.03.130(a) (Michie 2000) (App., infra, at 1-2). See also, Florida, FLA. STAT. ANN. § 1003.44 (West 2002) (App., infra, at 5-7); MD. CODE ANN., EDUC. § 7-105(c)(3) (West 2002) (App., infra, at 15-16); MISS. CODE ANN. § 37-13-7 (2001) (App., infra, at 19); N.J. STAT. The instant decision, without review, will undoubtedly resonate beyond the Ninth Circuit and into the national jurisprudence. Review by the Court will bring certainty and finality to an important legal issue of national import, and, accordingly, the case well meets the criteria for discretionary review by the Court on a writ of certiorari.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above the Court should grant certiorari on the petitions of the United States and Elk Grove School District.
